Soul-Centered Healing Supports Karma for Cancer

December 20, 2012 – Toms River, NJ – Soul-Centered Healing announced today that it will participate in Karma for Cancer to support Mary's Place By The Sea on January 6, 2013. Mary's Place by the Sea (<http://www.marysplacebythesea.org>) is a free respite center in Ocean Grove for woman battling or recovering from the effects of cancer. It provides a soothing nurturing environment through which the women can heal body, mind, and spirit.

Karma for Cancer is actually a nationwide event through which yoga studios, and healing centers raise funds and donate them to aid and support those with cancer. Soul-Centered Healing will be donating funds from all healing sessions during the day. "We're not usually open on Sunday's, so this offers people an additional day for healing sessions, plus we are supporting a remarkable organization," said Anysia Kiel, Soul-Centered Healing's Founder.

In addition to offering healing sessions, Soul-Centered Healing will have a special guided meditation at 6:00pm. The price is $20 per person. "This particular mediation will be geared toward healing cancer in ourselves and on a larger scale," said Kiel. People interested in registering for the mediation can sign-up online at the following link <http://www.anysiakiel.com/events> or by calling Soul-Centered Healing at the number listed below.
